THE HISTORY OF CIREBON

The city lies in the heart of major crossroad on the island of Java that stretched from West to East. The name Cirebon comes from the word "cai" means water or river and "rebon" means shrimp.

Based on old manuscript written by Prince Bujangga Manik, a Hindu Monk who travelled across Java and Bali in the 16th century, the city was founded in the 13th century by Ki Gedeng Alang-Alang as part of the biggest kingdom in West Java at the time, The Padjajaran Kingdom. The name Cirebon is also mentioned in the journal of Tome Pires, a European explorer in the 16th century. The seaport of Chirebon, was one of the most important harbor and main entry to the fertile Java Island.

However, in 16th century, following Dutch invasion, the tension between powerful kingdoms in Java Island increased and so did the contest for power amongst members of Cirebon royal family. As a result, Cirebon was divided into four sultanates namely The Kasepuhan, Kanoman, Kacirebonan and Keprabonan each lead by a Sultan.

THE LOCAL AREA & POINTS OF INTEREST

Royal Palaces

There are 4 palaces for 4 sultanates in Cirebon: Kasepuhan, Kanoman, Kacirebonan that are now open for public, and Keprabonan Palaces. The largest, oldest and also the most beautiful is The Kasepuhan. The architecture is a mixture of European, Chinese and Arabian. It also holds the largest historical collections including a famous royal carriage known as The “Singa Barong”. Impressive collections such as old gamelan orchestras, traditional fabrics, and royal weapons are also displayed in The Palace.

The second biggest palace is The Kanoman, only walking distance from The Kasepuhan, this palace is also used as museum. The architecture and collections are very much the same with The Kasepuhan. A traditional market known as The Kanoman Market can be found at the entrance of the palace. It is an interesting experience to walk through this market and find a lively local atmosphere.

Old City of Cirebon

Many historical buildings scattered around the city with some as old as the history of the city itself. The most notable is The Great Mosque “Sang Cipta Rasa” which is located near Kasepuhan Palace. The architecture of this mosque is purely Javanese and the structure made entirely of woods. Vihara Goddess of Mercy (Dewi Welas Asih) can be found in the northern part of the city, near port of Cirebon.

Other places worth visiting are many old “Indisch” styled buildings that lies from the centre of the city to the north. Among are the Town Hall Building, Bank Indonesia, British American Tobacco Office, Post Office, Santo Joseph Church and Cirebon Central Train Station.

Natural Tourism

Cirebon consists of many notable natural attractions which includes:

The Sunyaragi Cave, a wide peaceful park with scattered Hindu style buildings and Plangon Park the forest of the monkeys.

Sunan Gunung Jati, is known to have influenced the city’s history. Sunan Gunung Jati’s grave is located several kilometers outside the city in The Gunung Jati district. There are two temples and a cave system built by two Chinese architects around 1880s, decorated by Chinese and Western porcelain.

Mount Ciremai, the highest peak in West Java, is a large volcano situated about 40 KM to the south of Cirebon. Park and other tourist spots on the slopes of Mount Ciremai are popular places to visit during weekends to escape from the hot climate of Cirebon. One of the places to visit is the village of Linggarjati, near the town of Cilimus, where The Linggardjati Agreement was signed. Linggardjati Agreement or Cheribon Agreement was signed on 15 November 1946 between the Dutch Administration which was represented by Lieutenant General Governor Hubertus Van Mook and The Indonesian Prime Minister Sutan Sjahrir. This agreement helped Indonesia to push for independence.

Culinary Adventure

Empal Gentong	Meat and offal simmered in traditional curry and other spices cooked inside traditional clay jar.
Tahu Gejrot	Fried tofu topped with palm sugar syrup, chili and shallot.
Nasi Jamblang	Steam rice wrapped in teakwood leaf served with many side dishes.
Nasi Lengko	Rice served with bean sprouts, cucumber, chive, fried tofu, tempeh, topped with peanut sauce and soya sauce. This dish is one of signature food from Cirebon.

Souvenirs

The most famous souvenir in Cirebon is Batik Trusmi. Trusmi, a village 5 KM from the city, is the centre of local batik production. In traditional Javanese culture, batik is an art full of life philosophy. Chinese influences can be seen in Cirebon's culture, Mega Mendung pattern that resembles Chinese cloud imagery.

Other interesting souvenirs include Glass Painting which has been known since 17th century, the imagery in glass painting is usually derived from wayang theme to Islamic Calligraphy.

Performing Art

The Tari Topeng Cirebon or Cirebon mask dance, inspired by Javanese Panji cycles is one of notable Cirebon traditional dances and famous within Indonesian dances. Tarling is a musical tradition reminiscent of Bandung's kecap suling music with except that it features guitars, suling (bamboo flute) and voice. The name derived from gitar (guitar), and suling (flute).
